

Christ in our Homes

What can we learn from Jesus' visits?

Jesus wants our fellowship and love.

He knows where He is welcome.

He knows desire of heart.

He wants to fellowship with you.

Jesus' presence reveals sin in life.

He knew how Zacchaeus lived.

He said nothing about his sin.

His purity revealed Zacchaeus' impurity.

Jesus knew when salvation came.

His testimony was real.

He was changed!

Is Jesus welcomed in your home?

Luke 19: 1-10

<sup>1</sup>Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. <sup>2</sup>A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. <sup>3</sup>He wanted to see who Jesus was, but being a short man he could not, because of the crowd. <sup>4</sup>So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way.

<sup>5</sup>When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." <sup>6</sup>So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

<sup>7</sup>All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a 'sinner.' "

<sup>8</sup>But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."

<sup>9</sup>Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost."
